  - A 'blue slip' will be issued for the above infringements.

Procedure if out of uniform– ‘Blue slips’

A ‘blue slip’ is proof that the student has followed proper school procedure.

- Students are to see the uniform teacher before school or at assembly to receive their ‘blue slip’.
- Even with a note from a parent, students are to get a ‘blue slip’.
- If a student is late to school they must see the uniform teacher at recess/lunch.
- The ‘blue slip’ must be produced whenever a staff member asks to see it. If students cannot produce their ‘blue slip’, it will be an automatic after school detention.

Procedure if out of uniform– Parent notes

- A letter from a parent with an explanation, date, name of child, roll call class and your signature must be provided if the student is out of uniform. The note will only be valid with a signature from the parent.
- A medical certificate is to be supplied if students are out of uniform due to medical reasons.
- If a student is consistently out of uniform and provides a note from a parent every time, that parental note may no longer apply.
- Parents may send an email as a note to the uniform teachers

Procedure if out of uniform– After school detentions

- Uniform infringements accumulate with each item that is out of uniform without a parental note on the student, not for the day they are out of uniform.
- For example, if on a certain day a student has three items out of uniform without a parental note that will lead to an after school detention.
- Students who are out of uniform three times in a school year without a parent note will be issued with an after school detention. This does not reset each term.
- After school detention letters are issued to students during roll call, and a letter will also be sent home to parents/guardians. Students are given a 1-2 weeks notice for an afternoon detention
- If a student is unable to attend an after school detention they must arrange an alternate date with their Deputy.

Automatic After School Detentions

Students will be issued with an automatic afternoon detention for:

- Nails
- For not showings blue slip when out of uniform
- For refusing to get a blue slip

In Semester 2 in 2023, upon principal decision, students who did not have correct shoes and did not provide a note on Sport days, were issued with automatic afternoon detentions. This may come into place in 2024.
